

Fun is in the Forecast

Tired of having nothing to do when the weather won't cooperate? Well, whether it's a rainy day or blazing hot out, we're seeing fun in the forecast with today's activities! Join us as we learn how to make fireworks in the house, fire-free s'mores and much more. These activities will bring some joy and enrichment to you while stuck inside.

Fireworks in a jar

Who says you need warm weather, matches and pyrotechnics to enjoy a fireworks show at home? There's a way to create the bright bursting lights we all know and love, and we've found it! Join Camp Counselor Sona Kukreja as she demonstrates how to make fireworks in a jar.

Making Bracelets

Ever wanted to make your own bracelet? No fancy beads or rubber bands needed! Just a few basic materials are required. Learn how to make your own bracelet with Camp Counselor Deetya Chhatwal here on this video.

S'mores Trail Mix

It may not be your average summer night by the campfire, but no worries! Ever heard of a heatless, scoopable s'more? Well, we'll let Camp Counselor Ashlee Brockwell take over and guide you all on how to make S'mores Trail Mix! And it will be even more fun doing this on August 10th, National S'mores Day! Learn how in this video.

Strumming Along!

Making your own music can be a great stress reliever and a great craft all at once. The joys of making your own instrument are just the same. Join Camp Counselor Grace Callwood as she guides you through how to make your own guitar on this video from less than 10 craft items!

Journal

Today is a good day to capture your memories in your Camp Happy journal.
